

20 Questions to your child instead of "How was your day?"

What did you eat for lunch?

What was the funniest thing that happened to you today?

Did anyone say or do something nice to you?

What was the nicest thing you did for someone today?

Did you catch someone picking his or her nose today?

What was your biggest challenge today?

Who had the best breakfast today and what was it?

How would you rate your day from 1 to 10 and why?

Who would you like to be friends with and why are you not yet?

Which rule did you find hardest to comply with today?

Who in your class is the exact opposite of you?

Which of your teachers would survive a zombie apocalypse and why?

If one of your classmates could take over the whole school for a day, who should that be?

What did you do during recess?

What exciting things did you learn today?

Has anyone annoyed or upset you today?

Does your teacher remind you of someone you know?

What did you learn about one of your friends today?

What is one thing that you would you like to learn before the end of this school year?

What are you most proud of today?